Wilson Deege Dollar Despotovich & Riemenschneider

While the original association was formed in 1996, today Wayne Wilson, Mike Deege, John Dollar, Steve Despotovich, Scott Riemenschneider and Jody Bauer together strive to serve their clients through combined expertise. The mission of Wilson Deege Dollar Despotovich & Riemenschneider is to be the leading provider of quality legal services focusing on business and personal estate planning matters to a diverse clientele in a professional, timely, responsive and highly ethical nature.

The law practice was formed by a team of knowledgeable, talented attorneys with experience in different areas of trusts, probate, estate and business planning and estate litigation. With backgrounds ranging from trust departments, insurance companies and years of practicing law, they are able to compliment each other's strengths and focus their practice primarily on legal and financial issues in the areas of estate and business planning. All of the attorneys have been active in the Iowa State Bar Association.

Wilson Deege Dollar Despotovich & Riemenschneider strives to allow clients the opportunity to define their legacy by working closely with them to create an estate plan uniquely designed to reflect their values and desires. ■
